MEDICINAL.

A SURPRISING CASE.

Mr. Alex. W. Harris, a prominent lawyer at No. 1105 G st. n.w., Washington, D.C., under date of Jan. 11, 1890, wrote to the A. B. C. Chemical Co., Richmond, Va., giving the history of a case of skin eruption of 20 years' standing, the result of malignant blood disease. (At this time Mr. Harris had been unable to walk for six months.) In reply he was directed to use A. B. C. Alternative with the assurance that he would be cured. March 1st, 1890, Mr. Harris again wrote the A. B. C. Chemical Co. in the following words: "The improvement in my case so far is almost miraculous. I am really getting well, and can walk as well as I ever could, and my general health is never better. I shall write you from time to time. Meantime you can refer any one to me you desire, and I shall certainly tell them that the A. B. C. Alternative has done me more good in two months than has 20 years' experience with various eminent physicians and all other remedies tried." Under date of April 7th, 1890, Mr. Harris wrote, "I am entirely well."

A PANTHER KILLS A BEAR—Central Park, N. Y., has suffered the loss of one of its most attractive animals—a young brown bear, that was received into the menagerie last Tuesday from Florida. The little bear, with a companion about three months old, was put in a small cage next to that in which were kept two panthers. The bear cage is separated from the panther cage by iron bars a few inches apart. It was not believed that the young bear could squeeze through, but in exploring his new home one of them found an opening of sufficient width to admit of his passage through. As soon as the bear got into the panther's cage he began to play about and make his presence known. The panther had been watching him closely from a corner, and as soon as the little bear became quiet the panther sprang for him. He buried his teeth in the neck of the cub and held him firmly with his paws. Soon the little bear was done for. His weak resistance served to attract the attention of the keepers, who ran an iron into the panther's cage and tried to save the little fellow, but it was too late. The panther was severely punished before he would relax his hold on the mangled body. The other bear was saved.

IN BED WITH A BLACK SNAKE—We are indebted to a resident of this city for the following, the truthfulness of which he will vouch for. A few days ago the people of Riverton, Va., were aroused by a huge black snake entering the residence of Mr. Wm. McCauley. The room occupied as a bed room was entered about seven o'clock in the morning. Mr. McCauley having gone to work, the door was open. Mrs. McCauley was confined to her bed by sickness. The snake crawled into the bed and then over Mrs. McCauley and nestled down beside her. Being very much prostrated by her illness, she was unable to speak. The colored woman standing near by, ran for help. The first person she chanced to meet was Mr. Thos. J. Puston, of that place. Being asked if he was afraid of black snakes, he answered in the negative. On his way to the house, he picked up a small stick, about a foot long. Entering the room he gave the snake a blow on the head which stunned it. He then picked it up and carried it out and killed it. The snake measured six feet and was as thick as a man's arm—Hagerstown Globe.

A MODERN NEED FOR SLEEP—There is not one man or woman in ten thousand who can afford to do without seven or eight hours' sleep. All those stories written about great men and women who sleep only three or four hours a night make very interesting reading; but I tell you, my readers, no man or woman ever yet kept healthy in body and mind for a number of years with less than seven hours' sleep. Americans need more sleep than they are getting. This lack makes them so nervous and the insane asylums so populous. If you can get to bed early then rise early. If you cannot get to bed till late then rise late. It may be as Christian for one man to rise at 8 as it is for another to rise at 5. I counsel my readers to get up when they are rested. But let the rousing bell be rung at least thirty minutes before your public appearance. Physicians say that a sudden jump out of bed gives irregular motion to the pulse. It takes hours to get over a too sudden rising. Give us time after you call us to roll over, gaze at the world full in the face and look before we leap.—T. DeWitt Talmage in Ladies' Home Journal.

MEDICINAL.

Wake Up.

If you wake up in the morning with a bitter or bad taste in your mouth, Languor, Dull Headache, Despondency, Constipation, take Simmons' Liver Regulator. It corrects the bilious stomach, sweetens the breath and cleanses the furred tongue. Children as well as adults sometimes eat something that does not digest well, producing Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Restlessness, or Sleeplessness—a good dose of Regulator will give relief. So perfectly harmless is this remedy that it can be taken by the youngest infant or the most delicate person without injury, no matter what the condition of the system may be. It can do no harm if it does no good, but its reputation for 40 years proves it never fails in doing good.

THE BEST INVESTMENT
for the Family, School, or Professional Library.
"WEBSTER'S UNABRIDGED DICTIONARY" THE BEST

The Latest Edition has 118,000 words in its vocabulary, and over 200,000 pages, with illustrations on nearly every page. Besides many other valuable supplemental features it comprises a Biographical Dictionary, a New Gazetteer of the World, and a Dictionary of Etymology.

THE WEBSTER OF TO-DAY
Is the Standard Authority in the Government Printing Office, and with the U. S. Supreme Court. It is recommended by the State Superintendents of Schools in 39 States, and by the leading College Presidents of the U. S. and Canada.

DON'T BE DUPED
by buying the cheap phototype reprints of an obsolete "Webster" now being foisted upon the market. From A to Z they are all alike, being poor reproductions of the Dictionary of over 40 years ago. Announcements concerning them are very misleading; for instance, the supplement of 10,000 so-called "new words" was compiled by a gentleman who has been dead over thirty years, and was published before his death. Other so-called additions are reprints of a like nature. These books are all comparatively valueless. The Latest and Genuine Edition of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary bears on its title page the imprint of G. & C. MERRIAM & CO., Springfield, Mass. Sold by all Booksellers. Illustrated pamphlet free.
